

This cookie statement applies to www.webzilla.com (including the Webzilla Self-Service Center and all other panels and dashboards available under the Webzilla domain), a website of Webzilla B.V., a company incorporated in the Netherlands (hereinafter referred to as "Webzilla") and explains how cookies are placed on your computer, tablet and/or mobile telephone (a "device") in order to log information. A cookie is a small amount of data (a small file) sent to your computer by a website. In general, when you visit the Webzilla website, cookies will be placed on your device that help Webzilla to provide you with a good browsing experience and also allow Webzilla to improve its website. More specifically, Webzilla's website uses cookies for the following purposes:

Web Analytics

The Webzilla website uses Google Analytics and other web analytics services. Each tool places cookies on your device to help distinguish between different visitors and to analyze how users use the Webzilla website. The cookies placed on your device are used to collect certain information, such as the date and time that a user visits the Webzilla website, the number of times a user has visited the Webzilla website and the website that has directed the user to the Webzilla website. Other analytics may collect Personally Identifiable Information that may be saved on your computer, and can be used to identify or make contact with you; may also collect site engagement information and is used to optimize our user's experience on the website.

Functional Cookies

The Webzilla website also places cookies on your device to make navigating the website easier. These cookies are used to allow the website to remember choices you made and provide for enhanced, more personal features. For instance, these cookies can be used to remember the status of your shopping cart, or to allow you to return to a previous page.

Social Media

Social media can place cookies through the Webzilla website to integrate social media (i.e. LinkedIn, Twitter, Google+ and Facebook). You agree to place these cookies on your device by clicking on the social media buttons to activate them. These social media have their own privacy and cookie policies, which Webzilla does not control. Please check the social media websites for more information about their cookies and how to manage them.

You may refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings on your browser. Please note that if you do so, you may not be able to use the full functionality of the Webzilla website.

Privacy

Webzilla respects your privacy and is committed to maintaining the privacy and confidentiality of the personal data we collect. Webzilla will use your personal data in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Your personal data will be processed by Webzilla for the conclusion and execution of agreements for the provision of our services and managing the resulting relationships, including the performance of activities aimed at increasing the customer base. Subject to the consent of customer granted information can also be used for other marketing actions of Webzilla and to improve its products and services. If you believe that any personal information we have about you is incorrect, or if you have a question or complaint, please contact us at support@webzilla.com
