1. Master Agreement; Services

During the term of the Master Agreement, Customer may purchase and/or lease, as appropriate, the Services from Webzilla. Customer acknowledges that it is solely responsible for its decision to purchase and/or lease the Services from Webzilla. Customer shall order the Services pursuant to separate written agreements between Webzilla and Customer (hereinafter referred to as an "Order Form" as defined in section 22(b)), each of which shall be deemed incorporated herein upon its full execution and delivery by Webzilla and Customer. Each Order Form may contain terms and conditions specifically governing Customer's use of the Services described there in; however, the terms and conditions of the Master Agreement shall apply to each Order Form. In the event of a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Master Agreement and the terms and conditions of the Order Form, the Order Form shall take priority BUT this conflict does NOT void any agreement and specifically Customer's obligation to pay for Webzilla Services as agreed in the Order form as this is also clearly stated in clause four (4) in the MSA. Webzilla, its affiliates and/or its subcontractors may perform the Services.

2. Term

- 3.1 The term of the Master Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date (the date when the Customer ordered any services from Webzilla) and will expire as specifically stated in the Internet Services Master Agreement and/or Order Form signed between Customer and Webzilla. If the Customer did not sign an Internet Services Master Agreement and/or Order Form and has received services from Webzilla then this Master Agreement is valid indefinitely subject to termination, as per clause thirteen (13).

3. Licenses; Use of Services

- 3.1 Customer warrants and represents that it has obtained all of the necessary licenses, permits, and authorizations to use and/or resell the Services (the "Licenses"), and shall maintain the Licenses throughout the term of the related Order Form. In the event that Customer fails to maintain any of the Licenses, Webzilla may terminate the affected Order Form upon written notice to Customer.
- 3.2 Customer shall not use the Services for any improper or unlawful purpose, nor permit any third party to do so. Customer will cooperate in any investigation of Customer's alleged illegal use of Webzilla's facilities or other networks accessed through Webzilla, provided that Webzilla has reasonable cause to initiate such investigation. If Customer fails to cooperate with any such investigation, Webzilla may suspend Customer's Services. Additionally, Webzilla may modify or suspend Customer's Services in the event of illegal use of the Network or as necessary to comply with any law or regulation.
- 3.3 Customer will at all times comply with and conform its use of the Services to the Webzilla AUP and Webzilla Anti-SPAM Policy (Legal) as updated from time to time.
- 3.4 Webzilla may update the Webzilla AUP and/or Webzilla Anti-SPAM Policy from time to time by posting such updates on Webzilla's website. References herein to the Webzilla AUP and/or Webzilla Anti-SPAM Policy shall mean the most updated version of such policies or procedures posted on Webzilla's web site. Webzilla shall notify Customer in advance via Customer's registered email with Webzilla of any material changes to its policies and procedures.

- 3.5 Customer acknowledges that Webzilla exercises no control over and accepts no responsibility for the content of information and communications, in whatever form, transmitted by Customer over Webzilla's Network.
- 3.6 Customer's use of any information obtained via the Network is at Customer's own risk. Webzilla specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its Services.
- 3.7 In the event of any breach of this Section 3 by Customer, in addition to any other remedies available to Webzilla, Webzilla shall have the right to suspend the applicable Services without prior notice to Customer; provided that Webzilla notifies Customer of the suspension and its justification therefore as soon as practicable after the commencement of the suspension. Such notice shall also serve as notice of breach of the Master Agreement, as set forth in Section 13.1 below, and Webzilla may continue the suspension until (a) Customer cures the breach, or (b) Webzilla terminates the Master Agreement as set forth in Section 13.3. Customer hereby indemnifies and holds Webzilla harmless against any actual loss, claim, fine, damage, reasonable costs or expenses caused by Customer's breach of this Section 3.
- 3.8 Customer's non-adherence to this Master Agreement and/or any Order Form and/or any Webzilla policy, might Webzilla to enforce its rights under this Agreement.
- 3.9 Services not covered by a specific guarantee, are covered by Webzilla's Best Effort Policy (the "Best Effort Policy"). Webzilla will do its best to provide the specified Services, but cannot guarantee reaction, response and/or repair times. Any breach of this Master Agreement and/or Order Form by Customer makes this Best Effort Policy void.
- 3.10 Webzilla's obligations and Customer's exclusive remedies for failure of the Webzilla Services are stated in Webzilla's SLA signed by Customer and Webzilla.

4. Payment for Services

- 4.1 Webzilla shall invoice Customer for charges arising out of Customer's use of the Services (collectively, "Service Charges"). The billing frequency of each order may be mentioned in an Order Form. Service Charges will, whenever possible, be billed in advance. Customer shall ensure that such Service Charges have been paid within fourteen (14) days after the date of the applicable Webzilla invoice, unless otherwise specified in an Order Form. Unless otherwise agreed in an Order Form, all charges and/ or fees are in Euro or US Dollars and shall be payable in Euro or US Dollars as stated in the invoice.
- 4.2 Initial Payment. Upon full execution of initial services preparation, Customer shall be invoiced for all Service Activation Charges. Webzilla may require an Initial Payment for the first and last month's Service Charges or Webzilla may request an Initial Payment as agreed and clearly stated in an Order Form. The Initial Payment shall be due upon connection of Customer's equipment to the Network, but in no event later than 14 days after the execution of this Agreement.
- 4.3 Recurring Charges. Webzilla will bill Customer monthly in advance for the Services, and monthly in arrears for any additional Bandwidth / Datatraffic for the Services used above the committ Bandwidth / Datatraffic billed in the prior month, and/or extra services. "Bandwidth / Datatraffic Fees" is defined as charges for usage of Bandwidth / Datatraffic provided under this Agreement as set forth in an Order Form. Billing for monthly Service Charges will begin on the Effective Date or date of connection of the Customer equipment to the Webzilla Network, whichever is earlier.

- 4.4 Customer reserves the right to dispute in good faith all or any portion of any invoice received from Webzilla and to withhold payment of such disputed amounts, provided that Customer provides written notice of the amount of and reasons for the dispute at the time payment is withheld. Webzilla must receive written notice of any dispute from Customer within fourteen (14) days after the date of the relevant invoice; otherwise, Customer shall be deemed to have waived its right to dispute such invoice. In the event of a dispute, Customer shall pay the undisputed portion of the invoiced charges pursuant to Section 4.1 above. After reviewing the disputed amount and a decision as to the disputed amount has been made in Webzilla's sole discretion, the final amount is then forwarded to the Customer and the Customer must process the payment within seven (7) business days.
- 4.5 Any amount not paid by Customer within fourteen (14) days after the date of the relevant invoice, absent any good faith dispute regarding the unpaid portion, will be subject to a late charge in the amount of two percent (2,0%) per month or the maximum amount allowable by law, whichever is less. Such interest shall accrue from the day after the date on which payment is due up to and including the date on which payment is received by Webzilla. This interest charge shall be payable not withstanding any and all damages which Webzilla may otherwise claim in respect of Customer's failure to make payment when due. Customer agrees to pay Webzilla's reasonable expenses, including attorney and collection agency fees, incurred by Webzilla in enforcing its rights for any non payment by Customer subject to any Order Form signed by Webzilla and Customer.
- 4.6 Unless otherwise agreed by Webzilla and Customer in an Order Form, Customer is solely responsible for the payment of any local access or other telecommunications charges related to or arising out of Customer's connection to and use of Webzilla's Network and Services. Customer is responsible for paying any fees, obtaining any required approvals and complying with any laws or usage policies applicable to transmitting data beyond the Network and/or through other public and private networks. Webzilla is not responsible or liable for performance or non-performance of such networks or their interconnection points.
- 4.7 The method of payment for each order is mentioned in an Order Form.

Customer shall pay all sales, use, excise, or similar consumption taxes (including VAT, when applicable) arising out of its purchase or lease of Services from Webzilla; provided, however, that Webzilla shall be solely responsible for its own income, net worth, and property taxes. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Webzilla shall not invoice Customer for any taxes for which Customer has provided a valid exemption certificate issued by a taxation authority or a recognized controlling body/agent.

Webzilla reserves the right to suspend Services in order to perform maintenance, repairs, modifications or upgrades to its Network. Webzilla shall endeavor to (i) keep the duration of each suspension of Services as short as practicable, and (ii) schedule each suspension, to the extent practicable, so as to minimize interference with Customer's use of the Services.
